

93 people experiencing homelessness were housed in Nashville in January 2022.

Source: De-duplicated Nashville–Davidson County HMIS data for clients who moved from homelessness to housing, including:

- Exits to permanent housing destinations from Emergency Shelters, Transitional Housing, Street Outreach, and Support Services programs;
- Rapid Rehousing and Permanent Housing housing move-ins dates; and
- Exits to permanent housing from Coordinated Entry (CE) and Domestic Violence Coordinated Entry (DV CE)*.

*This data does not include information from the Nashville Rescue Mission.

DV CE data only includes the heads of household’s information, and may under-represent the number of people fleeing domestic violence who were housed.

Almost half (43%) of people housed since Jan. 1 2022 were Black or African American.

Street Outreach

Street Outreach (SO) projects offer services necessary to reach out to people experiencing unsheltered homelessness, connects them to emergency shelters, housing, or other services, and provides urgent non-facility-based care to people unwilling or unable to access emergency shelter or other housing.
